Invitation Issued By Pursel

The Alameda County Board of Supervisors extends to Albany a cordial invitation to attend an "Open House" at the new Welfare Building located at 401 Broadway, Oakland, California, on Friday, April 5, between 1:30 and 4:30 p.m.

At 3 o'clock, in the Conference Room on the fifth floor, Senator James A. Cobey, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Welfare and a member of the Governor's Commission on Welfare, will give an address. His subject will be "Social Welfare at the Crossroads."

Kent D. Pursel, Chairman Alameda County Board of Supervisors, issued the following statement: "Since the Welfare Budget for this fiscal year approximates forty-four (44) million dollars for Alameda County alone, I think Albany will be interested in viewing first-hand how this program is administered."

Party Plans Formulated

The third general meeting of all parents of graduating Albany High School seniors will be held at 7:30 p.m., tonight, April 3, in Room 1 of the High School Annex. This meeting is to further plans for the All Night Graduation Party to be held June 13 in the Marine Room of the Golden Gate Turf Club.

Co-General Chairmen, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Calderhead and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Cresswell, state that reports of interest will be made by all committee chairmen.

During the last six weeks many individual committee meetings have been held. Mr. and Mrs. Roland Edwards and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Moulton, Co-Chairmen of the Food Committee, report that their committee has things well in hand and that the graduates can look forward to ample and interesting food at the party.

The Decoration Committee, headed by Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Bricker and Mr. and Mrs. W. Tidwell, is making fine progress with decorations carrying out the "secret" party theme. Mr. Ben Eaton advises that there is a need for interested parents to work on the Hospitality Committee. No single person will be asked to serve a long tour of duty, but many are needed to adequately staff the committee.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ellinger and Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Wolf, parents of junior students, have volunteered to be on hand June 13 at the Turf Club while senior parents are attending the graduation ceremonies. They will see that everything is in readiness for the arriving seniors.

To insure success of this party it is necessary to have cooperation from every parent of a graduating senior. It is hoped that there will be a full turn out for the meeting tonight.

A DESSERT WHIST will be given by the Ladies Auxiliary of Eagles 1423 Berkeley, Thursday, April 4, 12:30 p.m., 2238 San Pablo Avenue, Berkeley.

ALBANY CITY COUNCIL VOTES UNANIMOUSLY TO ENDORSE RUMFORD BILL

Unanimous action was taken by the Albany City Council Monday night, April 1, favoring Assembly Bill 595 introduced by Seventeenth District Assemblyman W. Byron Rumford in Sacramento.

The Bill, a brief one but of importance to Albany in view of the proposed Rapid Transit Plan, reads: "The District may not construct a rapid transit line through the city unless by consent of the legislative body of such city as to the location thereof and upon such terms as are mutually agreed upon between the Board and such legislative body."

The Council voted to send a letter to Rumford approving the Bill and authorizing City Attorney Larry D. Saler to draw up a Resolution favoring the Bill, copies to be sent to area legislators.

In other action, the Council:

Acting on request from Mayor Joel Parker, who will be attending the Mayors' Conference, opposed the lease-purchase of the Coliseum Complex. Vice-mayor Lewis Howell labeled it as a "commercial project". Mayor Parker felt the Oakland Chamber of Commerce in conjunction with business people should finance it or it should be, as in bond indebtedness, brought before citizens for vote. Councilman George Hein stated: "I don't like the way it's been set up."

Took the position of opposition, Councilman Joseph Carlevaro abstaining from the vote, to the proposal of a five cent tax increase per $100 valuation for capital improvements and land acquisition for regional parks. The feeling was that further clarification of expenditures was needed.

Set April 15, 7 p.m., for work session with representative from Santa Fe Railroad before setting forth waterfront objectives.

Accepted with regret resignation of Mrs. Dorothy McCain from Albany Library Board and instructed City Attorney Saler to draw up Resolution of commendation for her service.

Scheduled a work session with representatives from Albany Post No. 292, American Legion, to City flag for Albany, with open meeting for benefit of Albany citizens, on April 8.

Passed emergency ordinance 63-03 re plan checking fee.

Approved Variance Permit requested by Raymond B. McManus, 944 Masonic Avenue, allowing reduction of front yard from 15 feet to 13 feet permitting a two foot extension on garage.

Held over Appeal by Franklin L. Johnson for Building Permit one week for opinion by City Attorney.

Verbally commended David Lee of Boy Scout Troop 108, on his salesmanship, when, during Good of the City, he explained the annual Scoutarama and sold tickets to the Council members.

Psychologist Speaker For Soroptimist

The Soroptimist Club of Albany had Mrs. Inka O'Hanrahan as speaker at their last luncheon meeting in March.

Speaking on "Woman in Relation to Women in Antiquity and Primitive Societies", Mrs. O'Hanrahan, a Clinical Bioanalyst and owner-director of the O'Hanrahan Clinical Laboratory in San Francisco, pointed out that the status of women in various societies throughout history has changed often. The range has been from ruler to slave. In present society, she stated, one third of the female population combine the duties of "homemaking and job". This calls for adjustment and arrangement of home duties for both mother and father. When a rational approach is used, throwing out established taboos, a working arrangement can be accomplished.

Mrs. O'Hanrahan's avocations are psychology, especially the psychology of women. She also has an active interest in anthropology and archeology.

The successful program was directed by Marge Ackeret who was chairman for the day.

Cosmetology Awards Won By Albany Students

Danny Howell of Albany, a student in the North Berkeley Beauty School with 1000 hours of cosmetology training, walked off with honors in a hair styling and coloring competition held recently at the Napa Beauty College.

Ronald Esquerra, formerly of Albany but now a resident of Oakland, who is also a student in the North Berkeley Beauty School, won second place. Third place went to Gary J. Gotto, 821 Santa Fe, Albany.

In the hair coloring competition, Tommy Vincencio, El Cerrito, won first with Howell awarded second. Nancy Million, Napa, took third place honors.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Maples are the owners and operators of the North Berkeley Beauty School, 1896 Solano Ave. They successfully train students in preparation of the attainment of a State license of Cosmetology. Recently they opened a new branch in Napa.

Included in the competent staff of instructors, under the direction of the Maples, is their son, Douglas, and their daughter, Marice.

MIRA VISTA CHURCH WEDDING

Katherine Ann Nesbitt Weds Joseph Winstead

Mira Vista Church in El Cerrito was the scene of the marriage of Katherine Annette Nesbitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Nesbitt, 7319 Plank Court, El Cerrito, to Joseph Frank Winstead, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Winstead of Rogersville, Tennessee. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Curtis Claire.

The bride, gowned in white nylon with chantilly lace bodice and paneled skirt, wore an elbow veil with a pearl crown and carried white orchids. Her maid of honor, Shirley Nesbitt of Richmond, and bridesmaid, Joan Johnson of San Leandro carried out the spring theme of the setting in blue nylon sheaths with taffeta overskirts and bouquets of yellow daffodils.

Richard Nebett, cousin of the bride, acted as best man. William Huff of Boulder, Colorado served as usher.

Mother of the bride, Mrs. George Nesbitt, wore a gold sheath and a corsage of gold orchids.

The reception, immediately following the wedding, was held in the Bermuda Room of the Richmond Civic Center.

ELNAMA OLSON AND VERA MA FOWLER, Albany Branch members of the California Association for Childhood Education, attended the annual CACE Study Conference at Fresno, California. Mrs. Olson is a member of the CACE State Board, and Mrs. Fowler is the Albany Branch president.
